

A BRIEF HISTORY OF COLLEGE SPORTS TRAGEDY

1960

Cal Poly's football team's chartered plane crashes after take-off from Toledo, OH. They were returning home after playing Bowling Green State University. Passengers: 48
Deceased: 22 Injured: 22

1970

Wichita Ate University's football team crashed on Oct. 2 in route to play Utah State. Deceased: 31/40. Marshall University's team crashed on Nov. 14. arriving home from East Carolina. Deceased: 75/75

1977

University of Evansville's basketball team's chartered plane crashed 90 seconds after takeoff, traveling to Nashville to play Middle Tennessee State University in Nashville. Deceased: 29/29

1985

Iowa State University's track & cross county teams were returning from NCAA Championship, where the women placed 2nd. Their 3 planes were diverted from Ames to Des Moines due to bad weather. One crashed. Deceased: 7/7

2001/2011

Oklahoma State University's basketball program experienced 2 air tragedies. In 2001, 1 of 3 planes carrying the men's team crashed. Deceased: 10/10. In 2011, the women's coaches crashed on a recruiting trip. Deceased: 4/4

2007

Bluffton University's baseball team traveled to games in Florida over spring break. Their charter bus crashed in Atlanta. Deceased 7/35

